walk,

we have travelled from a far away place
a very small spot
only reachable by some
and at specific states
although, it's bigger on the inside

your home, your body
uncertainty shakes walls

everything you ever loved,
will die and disappear, but
that doesn't scare you

what scares you is the notion that life will never feel comfortable
you are allergic to yourself

it's a condition, remember:

Y (-)
O
U

ARE

AND

CONNECTED,
AT THE SAME TIME

dark

shimmer of what?
sips through cracks in the facade
some parts of you, remembers

(its life..)

DNA-anomali
you just can't seem to shake this experience something inside has laid latent and now it wakes up

(or maybe I'm sleeping..)

we are moving subjects in a quantum field
we are particles
distance is relative; time is relative;
matter is discontinuous; and ideas,
contagious

walk;

magnetism, change gravity

walk,

can you sense us?
can we sense humans?

I've met the three wise men: Mohammed, Jesus and Moses (Moses had biked from Jerusalem to Trondheim with his current partner. We met in a museum that I worked. They left me a poem and wondering if I should join the God chosen people?

I declined politely and said thank you)

IS IT IMPOSSIBLE TO TELL PEOPLE ABOUT MY LIFE WITHOUT SOUNDING LIKE A PATHOLOGICAL LIAR???

I loved Shiva and she danced me to pieces
am I Brahma? am I Vishnu?
I've met Shakti already..

walk, plains wanderer; walk,

I've met Siddhartha, Gandhi and the future

I am not described in dogma sometimes I appear in poetry, art                      and                      LOVE

(what am I?)

in the future they can prove      we never existed

aliens are us
beings are already walking among us
can you travel?

have you found powers beyond comprehension?
has doors of perception both fooled you and lead you right?

uncertainty shakes walls
your home, again

relax..
breathe..

light

no crisis is avoidable, no pain in vain

dance!
dance...
dance..!
